GOVERNOR SEYMOUR.

His Letter of Acceptance.

Cordial Indorsement of the Democratic Platform.

The Radical Policy Reviewed and Denounced.

The following is the letter as corrected in full, of Gov. Seymour, accepting the nomination of the National Democratic Convention for President:

UTICA, N. Y., August 4, 1868.

Gen. G. W. Morgan and others, Committee, etc.:

Gentlemen: When in the city of New York, on the 11th of July, in the presence of a vast multitude, on behalf of the National Democratic Convention, you tendered to me its unanimous nomination as their candidate for the office of President of the United States, I stated I had no words "adequate to express my gratitude for the good will and kindness which that body had shown to me. Its nomination was unsought and unexpected. It was my ambition to take an active part—from which I am now excluded—in the great struggle going on for the restoration of good government, of peace and prosperity to our country. But I have been caught up by the overwhelming tide which is bearing us on to a great political change, and I find myself unable to resist its pressure. You have also given me a copy of the resolutions put forth by the Convention, showing its position upon all the great questions which now agitate the country. As the presiding officer of that Convention, I am familiar with their scope and import. As one of its members, I am a party to their terms. They are in accord with my views, and I stand upon them in the contest upon which we are now entering, and I shall strive to carry them out in future, wherever I may be placed, in political or private life."

I then stated that I would send you these words of acceptance in a letter, as is the customary form. I see no reason, upon reflection, to change or qualify the terms of my approval of the resolutions of the Convention. I have delayed the mere formal act of communicating to you in writing what I thus publicly said, for the purpose of seeing what light the action of Congress would throw upon the interests of the country. Its acts since the adjournment of the Convention show an alarm lest a change of political power will give to the people what they ought to have—a clear statement of what has been done with the money drawn from them during the past eight years. Thoughtful men feel that there have been wrongs in the financial management which have been kept from the public knowledge. The Congressional party has not only allied itself with military power, which is to be brought to bear directly upon the elections in many States, but it also holds itself in perpetual session, with the avowed purpose of making such laws as it shall see fit, in view of the elections which will take place within a few weeks. It did not, therefore, adjourn, but took a recess to meet again, if its partisan interests should demand its reassembling. Never before in the history of our country has Congress thus taken a menacing attitude toward its electors. Under its influence, some of the States organized by its agents are proposing to deprive the people of the right to vote for Presidential electors, and the first bold steps are taken to destroy the rights of suffrage. It is not strange, therefore, that thoughtful men see in such action the proof that there is, with those who shape the policy of the Republican party, motives stronger and deeper than the mere wish to hold political power—that there is a dread of some exposure, which drives them on to acts so desperate and so impolitic. Many of the ablest leaders and journals of the Republican party have openly deplored the violence of Congressional action, and its tendency to keep up discord in our country. The great interests of our Union demand peace, order, and a return to those industrial pursuits without which we cannot maintain the faith or honor of our Government. The minds of business men are perplexed by uncertainties. The hours of toil of our laborers are lengthened by the cost of living; made by the direct and indirect exactions of Government. Our people are harrassed by the heavy and frequent demands of the tax-gatherer.

Without distinction of party there is a strong feeling in favor of that line of action which shall restore order and confidence, and shall lift off the burdens which now hinder and vex the industry of the country. Yet at this moment those in power have thrown into the Senate chamber and Congressional hall new elements of discord and violence. Men have been admitted as representatives of some of the Southern States with the declaration upon their lips that they cannot live in the States they claim to represent, without military protection. These men are to make laws for the North, as well as the South. These men who, a few days since, were seeking as suppliants that Congress would give them power within their respective States, are to-day the masters and controllers of the action of those bodies. Entering them with minds filled with passions, their first demands have been that Congress shall look upon the States from which they came as in conditions of civil war; that the majority of their populations, embracing their intelligence, shall be treated as public enemies; that military forces shall be kept up at the cost of the people of the North, and that there shall be no peace and order at the South, save that which is made by arbitrary power.

Every intelligent man knows that these men owe their seats in Congress to the disorder in the South. Every man knows that they not only owe their present positions to disorder, but that every motive springing from the love of power, of gain, of a desire for vengeance, prompts them to keep the South in anarchy. While that exists they are independent of the will or wishes of their fellow-citizens. While confusion reigns they are the dispensers of the profits and the honors which grow out of a government of mere force. These men are now placed in positions where they can not only urge their views of policy, but where they can enforce them. When others shall be admitted in this manner from the remaining Southern States, although they will have in truth no constituents, they will have more power in the Senate than the majority of the people of this Union living in nine of the great States. In vain the wisest members of the Republican party protested against the policy that led to this result. While the chiefs of the late rebellion have submitted to the results of the war, and are now quietly engaged in useful pursuits for the support of themselves and their families, and are trying by the force of their example to lead back the people of the South to the order and industry not only essential to their well being, but to the greatness and prosperity of our common country, we see that those who, without ability or influence, have been thrown by the agitations of civil convulsion into positions of honor and profit, are striving to keep alive the passions to which they owe their elevation; and they clamorously insist that they are the only friends of our Union—a Union that can only have a sure foundation in fraternal regard, and a common desire to promote the peace, the order, and the happiness of all sections of our land.

Events in Congress, since the adjournment of the Convention, have vastly increased the importance of political victory by those who are seeking to bring back economy, simplicity and justice in the administration of our national affairs. Many Republicans have heretofore clung to their party who have regretted the extremes of violence to which it has run. They have cherished a faith, that while the action of their political friends has been mistaken, their motives have been good. They must now see that the Republican party is in that condition that it cannot carry out a wise and peaceful policy, whatever its motives may be. It is a misfortune, not only to a country, but to a governing party itself, when its action is unchecked by any form of opposition. It has been the misfortune of the Republican party that the events of the past few years have given it so much power that it has been able to shackle the Executive, to trammel the judiciary, and to carry out the views of the most unwise and violent of its members. When this state of things exists in any party, it has ever been found that the sober judgments of its ablest leaders do not control. There is hardly an able man who helped to build up the Republican organization who has not within the past three years warned it against its excesses, who has not been borne down and forced to give up his convictions of what the interests of the country called for; or, if too patriotic to do this, who has not been driven from its ranks. If this has been the case heretofore, what will be its action now, with this new infusion of men who, without a decent respect for the views of those who have just given them their positions, begin their legislative career with calls for arms—with demands that their States shall be regarded as in a condition of civil war, and with the declaration that they are ready and anxious to degrade the President of the United States whenever they can persuade or force Congress to bring forward new articles of impeachment? The Republican party, as well as we, are interested in putting some check upon this violence. It must be clear to every thinking man that a division of political power tends to check the violence of party action, and to assure the peace and good order of society. The election of a Democratic Executive and a majority of Democratic members to the House of Representatives would not give to that party organization the power to make sudden or violent changes; but it would serve to check those extreme measures which have been deplored by the best men of both political organizations. The result would most certainly lead to that peaceful restoration of the Union and re-establishment of fraternal relationship which the country desires. I am sure that the best men of the Republican party deplore as deeply as I do the spirit of violence shown by those recently admitted to seats in Congress from the South. The condition of civil war which they contemplate must be horrible to every right thinking man. I have no mere personal wishes which mislead my judgment in regard to the pending election. No man who has weighed and measured the duties of the office of President of the United States can fail to be impressed with the cares and toils of him who is to meet its demands. It is not merely to float with popular currents, without a policy or a purpose; on the contrary, while our Constitution gives just weight to the public will, its distinguishing feature is that it seeks to protect the rights of minorities; its greatest glory is that it puts restraints upon power; it gives force and form to those maxims and principles of civil liberty for which the martyrs of freedom have struggled through ages; it declares the right of the people "to be secure in their persons, houses and papers, against unreasonable searches and seizures: that Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press, or the right of the people to petition for redress of grievances. It secures the right of a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury."

No man can rightfully enter upon the duties of the Presidential office unless he is not only willing to carry out the wishes of the people expressed in a constitutional way, but is also prepared to stand up for the rights of minorities. He must be ready to uphold the free exercise of religion. He must denounce measures which would wrong personal or home rights, or the religious conscience of the citizens of the land. He must maintain, without distinction of creed or nationality, all the privileges of American citizenship. The experience of every public man who has been faithful to his trust teaches him that no one can do the duties of the office of President unless he is ready not only to undergo the falsehoods and abuse of the bad, but to suffer from the censure of the good, who are misled by prejudices and misrepresentations. There are no attractions in such positions which deceive my judgment, when I say that a great change is going on in the public mind. The mass of the Republican party are more thoughtful, impartial, and just than they were during the excitements which attended the progress and close of the civil war. As the energy of the Democratic party springs from their devotion to their cause, and not to their candidates, I may, with propriety, speak of the fact, that never in the political history of our country has the action of any like body been hailed with such universal and widespread enthusiasm as that which has been shown in relation to the position of the National Democratic Convention. With this the candidates had nothing to do. Had any others of those named been selected, this spirit would have been, perhaps, more marked. The zeal and energy of the Conservative masses spring from a desire to make a change of political policy, and from the confidence that they can carry out their purpose. In this faith they are strengthened by the co-operation of the great body of those who served in the Union army and navy during the war. Having given nearly sixteen thousand commissions to the officers of that army, I know their views and wishes. They demand the Union for which they fought. The largest meeting of these gallant soldiers which ever assembled was held in New York, and indorsed the action of the National Convention. In words instinct with meaning, they called upon the Government to stop in its policy of hate, discord and disunion, and in terms of fervid eloquence they demanded the restoration of the rights and liberties of the American people. When there is such accord between those who proved themselves brave and self-sacrificing in war and those who are thoughtful and patriotic in council, I cannot doubt we shall gain a political triumph which will restore our Union, bring back peace and prosperity to our land, and will give us once more the blessings of a wise, economical and honest Government.

I am, gentlemen, truly yours, etc.,

CANDIDATES AND PRINCIPLES.

The Democratic Convention of the Eighth Congressional District has nominated JOHN W. LEFTWICH for Congress, and W. W. VAUGHN, of Haywood, for Elector.

We were opposed to the nomination of Dr. LEFTWICH; but we consented that the nomination should be unanimous, when the will of the majority of the Convention had been fairly expressed; and we shall in good faith support its nominations.

Our opinions as to widening the basis of suffrage are too well known to need reiteration. Until after the election, we have nothing more to say on that subject. Time will show whether we have been right or wrong in regard to that matter; and the day will come when no duty to the party will require us to refrain from speaking. Till then, we wait.

That we should have preferred another candidate for Congress, can be no reason for discontent or lukewarmness in the support of the gentleman preferred by the intelligent representatives of the counties of this District, whose opinion and preference were not the same as ours. Of course we cannot, as an honest and true man, give any assistance, aid or comfort, even by indirection and inaction, to either of the candidates of Radicalism.

That we prefer one friend of the South, one son of the South who is true to her, to another, can be no reason why we should prefer an open enemy. Nor, if we dissent from any portion of the policy of our party, and assert our own right of independent thought and action, must that be taken as evidence of a moody discontent?

We could not have opposed and defeated the proposition to pledge the Democratic party of the District to unlimited and perpetual negro suffrage, IF the colored voters of the State should consent to our enfranchisement, without having it thrown in our teeth that we had caused the Loyal Leaguers to vote against us, when by politic concessions we might have won them to our side. We therefore imposed silence on ourselves, and the pledge was given. We will wait to see the result. We hope it may be as many of our friends confidently believe it will.

Meanwhile, the same great questions and vital issues continue involved in the contest. The great National Democratic party demands the restoration of the Constitution as it was, as the supreme law of the land; the abolition of military despotism; the restoration of the rights of English freemen, inherited by us, our legacies and heir-looms of liberty; the restraining of each Department of the Government within the Constitutional limits, and the restoration of their prerogatives to those which have been robbed of them by the legislation of the other; curtailment of the enormous expenses of the Government; diminution of the taxation that has become too heavy to be borne, and one currency for people and the holders of Government bonds; and above all, the annihilation of all unconstitutional legislation affecting the Southern States, and suppression of State Governments that are the vicious and base progeny of Force and Fraud. Of all these reforms SEYMOUR and BLAIR are the representatives: and here in Tennessee eighty thousand white men demand enfranchisement and the end of a Reign of Terror, of extortion and corruption, that has no parallel in modern times.

Shoulder to shoulder, then; and forward!

NO ENFRANCHISEMENT—NO PEACE.

On the 4th instant, the House of Misrepresentatives of Tennessee, by a vote of fifty to twenty, adopted a resolution declaring the present not the time to consider the franchise question. Mr. Hamilton, of Shelby, had asked what guarantee there was for future peace. The Bulletin had in time published a clamorous article accusing the Conservatives of intending violence, while the most honored and trusted of the Confederate Generals, aided by reflecting and moderate Radicals, were at Nashville endeavoring to prevent the adoption of measures sure to precipitate the State into anarchy and bloodshed.

These have proved to be vain and idle efforts. No man doubted the sincerity of the representatives of the Conservative men of Tennessee; and yet a vindictive and besotted Legislature has spurned the proffered olive-branch, and insists on blood.

Since the conference, that body has definitively refused to consider any proposition to amend the franchise law, and Mr. Stokes, we learn, announces that it is the unalterable determination of the Radical leaders in Congress to continue for life the disfranchisement of every rebel now disfranchised by law.

The bill providing for arming, equipping and calling into service the State militia has passed; with a clause which in advance assures every vagabond among them of immunity for anything that he may do while in the service. This is a new kind of letter of marque and reprisal, authorizing the State troops to cruise on land for purposes of violence and plunder. Already the negroes are jubilant at the prospect so invitingly spread out before them, and the feast of fat things to which they are invited.

We did not know, until yesterday, that on Saturday night, about eleven o'clock while a peaceful party of some thirty Democrats were serenading the APPEAL office, on Jefferson street, a band of negro desperadoes, fresh from a harangue on the bluff by one or more of those who incite them to acts of violence, marched down Jefferson street, three hundred perhaps in number, each man having a bludgeon in one hand and a pistol in the other, and with yells and howlings forced the serenaders to give them the way.

We refused to sign the petition of citizens of Memphis, begging the Legislature to enfranchise all white men. We did not choose to minister to the gratification of the Governor's revenge and malice by becoming a suppliant to him or the Legislature, with the certainty of an insolent rebuff. We do not look for relief in that direction, but rely entirely on the Democratic victory to be achieved, we hope and believe, in November next.

The proposal to call a Convention for the purpose of modifying the franchise law, was a mere trick to postpone the matter until after the November election. The Legislature itself has ample power to remove all disabilities, by a simple enactment to that effect. But we are not sorry that overtures were made to the Legislature, nor that it rejected them. Every such act makes the doom of Jacobinism more certain, and brings nearer the day of its dissolution.

We do not very much care to know who lead the negro proletaires of Memphis: but it is useless to deny that Barbour Lewis is one of their Chiefs. That the Bulletin repudiates him as such, in no wise deprives him of his commission, any more than its professions of peaceful intent prove themselves sincere.

It is the purpose of the Conservative men of Memphis to endure even after patience ceases to be a virtue. They know that the poor creatures whom Radicalism is deluding and misleading to their ruin, will be emboldened by every successful exhibition of insolence; and they mean that when the perhaps unavoidable collision comes, it shall be forced upon them by actual violence on the part of the negroes, who will rue the day when they force the white men of the city to defend themselves.

We once recommended the formation of a civic guard, of the most respectable of our citizens, to prevent anticipated collisions. We have advised all Conservatives to arm and organize for self defence. We have advised them that the law forbidding the carrying of weapons is null and void, and its operation partial and unjust; and that they have a right, of which no human law can deprive them, to disobey it. The Police, we think, licenses some individuals, whose occupation requires them to be out much at night, to carry arms; and the arrest of a negro for carrying weapons is a thing almost entirely unknown. The negroes are all armed; and they are armed and drilled for aggression and violence. They and their white advisers force Conservatives to arm for self-defence, and then cry out that we threaten violence. It is false. We have again and again, orally and with the pen, protested against any measures of violence whatever. If to recount our wrongs is to provoke the wronged to seek revenge, that is the fault of those who do the wrong. On that theme we cannot be silent.

By the way, in appealing to some of the Radical leaders to co-operate with Conservatives in keeping the peace, we inadvertantly named Mr. J. B. Bingham among them. We apologize to him for placing him where he does not belong.

To the others we say that they are inflaming the passions and arousing the fury of an element which they will be as powerless as children to control, and which, if they attempt to restrain it, when it overleaps the barriers of the law, will turn upon them and rend them. The resolutions of the Convention at Brownsville on this subject were adopted when the delegation from Shelby county was absent by leave of the Convention, and were not even heard by the large majority of the members. Perhaps some might have desired to modify the last clause of the last resolution; but there is no doubt that it expresses the sincere conviction of the Democrats of this city, that if hostilities are provoked by the negroes, they will not be half so much to blame as the white men who stand behind them and urge them on; and that, if the blood of Conservatives is shed here, these inciters to violence will be held responsible.

Negro Drilling.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

The infamous sheet on Union street denies the statement of negroes drilling in the suburbs of this city at night. It is a significant fact that the editor of that sheet should utter the falsehood. It proves his complicity in the act, and his consciousness of the malignant purpose of the actors. I advise the Democrats of the city, both white and colored, to watch his movements. A man who knows of such dangerous practices, and yet, without a blush, can deny the fact, is himself capable of any act that does not require personal courage, or integrity and honor. C.

TENNESSEE.

—The Banner says that Elias Polk and Joe Williams, two colored men, are to make Democratic speeches at Fayetteville, Lincoln county, next week.

—From the same paper we learn that the Nashville Board of Aldermen have passed a bill fixing the rate of taxation for the ensuing year at sixteen mills on the dollar. The Common Council would do well to follow its example.

—The Gallatin Examiner of the 8th inst. says: During the past two weeks heavy and frequent rains have fallen throughout this section; occasionally, however, small spots have singularly received none at all. The fears of the farmers are relieved, and with seasonable weather hereafter we may count upon a heavy corn crop. Even without much more rain the early corn is beyond much risk.

ALABAMA.

—We learn from the Mobile Register that Elliott, the drunken Judge, has resigned. The same paper says: Yesterday, for the first time in the past seventeen days, no rain fell. The sun shone brightly, and the day was decidedly hot.

—We clip the following paragraphs from the Montgomery papers:

The following resolution was found on the desk of a Radical member this morning:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to wake up the colored member from Macon, and give him another drink.

—One of the colored members of the House was so drunk yesterday that he fell asleep in his chair, and after a long snore, finally awoke, gazing stupidly around and mumbling, "Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of Grant and Colfax." This drunken beast is one of Alabama's lawmakers.

—In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Coon declared that if the franchise bill were passed, thus turning over the Government to disloyal men, he, for one, would resume his carpet-bag and hunt another hole. Mr. Jones, in replying, said that he considered no one a true citizen of Alabama who was ready to take up his carpet-bag and travel as soon as his party was not in power.

VIRGINIA.

We clip the following items from the first number of the Alexandria Daily Commercial Advertiser, of August 1st:

We learn that all the military stores and cannon save the 300 pounder, will be removed from Battery Rodney to Washington at once.

Alexandria drinks up about one hundred and fifty pounds of lager per day. How much whisky it engulfs daily is something less easy to guess at.

Should Gen. Stoneman bend to the desire of the Radical faction in the State, Sheriff Steuart, of this county, and Judge Thomas, of Fairfax, will be removed, as they cannot take the iron-clad oath.

Canal commerce has not been marked for briskness for several days past, owing to a strike among the boatmen. The misunderstanding was adjusted yesterday; consequently, the trade will go on as usual.

A six foot, wide-mouthed shark was caught in a seine in the Potomac, below Glymont, Thursday, and brought to this city yesterday. An attempt was made to sell the carcas to the proprietors of an Alexandria soup-making establishment. It did not succeed.

—The Boston, Newport and New York Steamship Company have just purchased eleven thousand tons of coal, which will be landed at Newport before winter.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 11.—Mazaltan advices to August 1st state that the Captain of the "Chanticleer" has raised the blockade, stating that matters are now in the hands of the general Government for settlement. Gen. Corova received instructions from Mexico to the effect that the money taken from the paymaster of the Chanticleer shall remain on deposit until the case is adjudicated. At Mazatlan all branches of business are paralyzed; no indications of improvement in the future. Robberies and murders are of frequent occurrence.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 11.—The Radical State Convention, to nominate Presidential Electors and Congressmen for the State at large, meets to-morrow. Nearly every county in the State will be represented. Delegates in considerable numbers have already arrived. The Convention to nominate a candidate for Congressman from this district will also assemble. The nomination lies between S. C. Mercer, of the Press and Times, and Col. Prosser, Representative of this county in the Legislature.

Wm. Bone, an old citizen of Perry county, was assassinated a few days ago, whilst riding along a country road. The murderer was in ambush.

SARATOGA.

SIXTH AND LAST DAY OF THE RACES.

SARATOGA, August 11.—The first race was a hurdle race for all ages, two miles, eight hurdles, three and a half feet high, $500 for winner, $100 for second horse if three or more start. The race was won by Lobelia, Starlight second, Eagle third, Tycoon fourth. Time, 3:58½. Lobelia was the favorite in the pools two to one against the field.

The second race was a dash of four miles, all ages, purse $1000, won by Jas. A. Connolly, Fat Malloy second, Plantagenet third. Connolly was the favorite in the pools. Time, 1:58½, 1:53¾, 1:51½, 1:50½; total, 7:38. Weather showery; track slow.

The third race was a dash of one and a half miles, purse $600; won easily by Steely, Villey second, Clara Clarita third, Lizzie Rogers fourth, Aibura, fifth. Time, 2:50½. Pools sold: Steely, $300; Villey, $150; Clara, $270; Rogers and Albura together, $120.

The fourth race, dash of half a mile, was won by Weldon's Jubal with the greatest ease in 53¾.

There was heavy showers during the last three races, but the attendance was immense. It was the most successful day of the meeting.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 11.—The deaths last week from diarrhea exceeds those from sunstroke during the heated term.

The body found Saturday in East river proves to be that of Charles Elliott, formerly a judge in California, but for nine months past a member of the firm of Bennington & Co., of this city. He is understood to have received $4000 on Friday, and as there is a wound on his head, and neither watch or money on his person, there is no doubt but he was murdered.

The body of another man was found decomposed in his house on Hudson avenue, Brooklyn, to-day, which proved to be the remains of Hugh Arringham who was last seen on Saturday. His family was on a visit to friends at a distance.

Joe Coburn, in a card to-day, declines to meet McCoole at Pittsburg, but avers his willingness to fight at a day or week's notice. He will be on hand at the appointed place here on Thursday, and if McCoole or a representative does not appear, he will claim the money.

Madamoiselle Foster came as a passenger on the Ville de Paris.

The ship Java, of New York, foundered at sea July 8th. Crew saved and have arrived here.

A telegram received here to-day from Halifax announces the arrival there of the rest of the crew of the bark H. Trowbridge, before reported found at sea with the bodies of three dead sailors.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, August 11.—J. M. Tarble brought into the city to day the first bale of new cotton; classed as good middling, weighed 600 pounds and sold at auction for 42½c per pound.

Quite a flutter was caused in the Legislature to-day, by the Governor sending back to the Senate a veto of the bill authorizing the Legislature to cast the electoral vote of the State. Gov. Smith says: "After most mature reflection I am forced to the conclusion that the bill is wrong in principle, and would be a dangerous precedent in a Republican Government. As my judgment does not approve the bill, it is my constitutional duty to return it to the Senate, with my objections. It cannot but be regarded as remarkable that the first Republican Legislature convened in Alabama shall, in the face of the principles of its organization, and which every Republican professes to hold dear, deny not to the colored but to the white man the right by his vote to indicate his choice for President and Vice President of the United States, and take the matter in their own hands. What excuse can there be for it? Is it mere party expediency? If so this an abandonment of principle, and an acknowledgement that the material of which the Republican party is composed cannot be trusted—in other words the colored man won't do to trust. This action of the General Assembly will be regarded as still more remarkable when considered in connection with what seems to have been the almost unanimous action of the leading members of the Republican party of Alabama. It was believed by most of them, and so represented at Washington, that a large majority of the voting population of this State were in favor of the new Constitution. This was as much as to say that the Republican party was in a large majority in the State, for it is well known that none but Republicans voted for it—some of them even opposing it. If the party is so strong as is contended, then the necessity of party expediency does not exist. Even if it does exist, we would not be justifiable in resorting to it. As much as I desire the election of Grant and Colfax, I am unwilling to further that object by such a scheme, which practically denies the very principles to which those standard bearers stand pledged before the country."

The message gave rise to a warm discussion, and caused much bitterness.

The debate was conducted altogether by Radicals, there being but one Democrat in the Senate.

The Senate adjourned without action, but it is not likely that it will become a law.

The Legislature will probably adjourn to-morrow.

SELMA, August 11.—The first bale of new cotton was received here to-day from the plantation of George P. Baker. It weighed 510 pounds, was classed middling, and sold at 35 cents.

If this law is followed this year, the thermometer this month will average only about 65°, or nearly 30° less than for the last fortnight.

—An English paper says: "A fisherman of Mevagissey lately became impressed with the idea that he was 'illwished' by a poor widow, whose son had been dismissed from a mackerel seine. To avert the evil consequences which he apprehended might ensue, he procured a large bone, and after filling the hollow with pins, proceeded to place it in the chimney. During this ceremony he read portions of the Bible, especially the 109th Psalm. This incantation was intended to cast a spell on the 'witch,' but hitherto it has failed in effecting the proposed result."

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF LEVEE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE COUNTIES OF BOLIVAR, WASHINGTON AND ISSAQUENA, GREENVILLE, MISS., August 5, 1868.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received until Saturday, the 29th day of August, for the construction of the following Levees.

IN BOLIVAR COUNTY.

Kirk's Levee, about 40,000 cubic yards.
Pride's Point Levee, about 40,000 cubic yards.
From Vicks to Vermilion, about 180,000 cubic yards.
Lake Bolivar Levee, 180,000 cubic yards.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Levee from Tarpley's to Mrs. Campbell's, about 150,000 cubic yards.
Greenville Levee, about 20,000 cubic yards.
Renshaw's Levee, about 20,000 cubic yards.

ISSAQUENA COUNTY.

Camack's Levee, about 50,000 cubic yards.
Christmas Levee, about 150,000 cubic yards.

Separate proposals may be made for each of these Levees, or for the whole number in the District. Propositions must state the price per cubic yard for which the work will be constructed.

For the information of capitalists, I would state that the whole amount of indebtedness of the board is about $138,000, and that the tax on the present cotton crop will more than discharge every form of obligation.

Any information in regard to the Levees, or matters pertaining to their construction, can be obtained by appli ation at the office.

CITY MATTERS.

MR. SEYMOUR'S LETTER.—We publish to-day the correct text of Mr. Seymour's letter of acceptance—there having been several errors in the one first given to the public.

THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE will give a picnic on the second Wednesday in September, at James' Park.

THERE were but five arrests in the Second District yesterday—all for minor offenses.

STILL THEY COME.—The number of boarders in the hotel de Beaumont is steadily increasing. "A workhouse," is Col. Beaumont's cry, and we re-echo it. Let us have a workhouse.

THE WEATHER yesterday was varied—a cloudy morning, a brilliant noon, and a rainy evening. As we write, dark lowering clouds are rising from every point of the compass, and we have every prospect for a stormy night.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A man stood on the corner of Second and Union yesterday eating grapes and throwing the hulls on the sidewalks. Turning to leave, he stepped on one of the hulls and fell, "barking" his knee and otherwise injuring himself—for which fact we were duly grateful.

YOUNG MEN'S SEYMOUR CLUB.—The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Independent Seymour Democratic Club will be held this Wednesday evening, at Firemen's Hall, corner of Second and Adams streets. It is earnestly requested that every member will be present at 8 o'clock precisely.
By order of the President.

Y. M. I. D. CLUB MEETING.—The Young Men's Independent Democratic Club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Stillman Hall. Messrs. A. H. Douglas and George Gillham will make brief addresses. As this is to be principally a business meeting, it is earnestly requested that there be a full attendance of members.

SPECIAL trains to the Democratic Mass Meeting at Grand Junction leave Memphis at half-past six a.m., and Corinth at seven a.m., arriving at the Junction at ten a.m. Friday, August 14th. Full fare going; return free.
On Saturday, the 15th, persons attending the Agricultural meeting at White's will be charged fare one way only.

E. N. EVANS, Carroll Carr and John Walton, were arrested yesterday at the instance of a darkey, who charged them with threatening his life. The evidence showed that the complainant had been stealing chickens from the defendants, and they merely threatened him to scare him. The former of the three was discharged, and the two latter fined two dollars apiece by 'Squire Miliard, before whom the case was tried.

All the surviving members of the 154th Senior Tennessee regiment and their friends and relatives are requested to meet on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at 213 Main street, second door above Adams, for the purpose of organizing a Mutual Relief Association.

MEMPHIS, August 11, 1868.

EDUCATIONAL.—We would invite the attention of our patrons and friends who have sons to educate, to the card of the college of the Christian Brothers, at St. Louis, Mo. The plan upon which this school is conducted is new and most excellent—offering rare advantages to young men desirous of entering mercantile life. The next session will commence on the last Monday in August. Applicants for admission will do well to apply immediately. All communications should be addressed to Brother Edward, President.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street, and 393 Main street, have received Du Modenwelt for August, Chimney Corner Monthly, No. 42, Ballou's Monthly for September, Monthly True Flag, containing the Hollingford Mystery complete, Southern Opinion (H. Rives Pollard's paper, Richmond, Va.), Mercury, Waverly, Sporting Times, Literary Album, Metropolitan Record, Wilkes', and the dailies from the principal cities, and Harpers' Bazar No. 33. Five thousand badges of candidates for President and Vice President to arrive soon. Send in orders.

TO PLANTERS.—We wish to call the attention of Planters, country merchants and families to the card, in another column, of Wm. Gay, Esq., No. 310 Front street. This gentleman, formerly of the firm of Taylor, Gay & Rutland, has opened an entirely new stock of plantation supplies at the above stand, and by strict attention to business will we are sure soon receive a large share of patronage. Shipments of cotton consigned to him will be promptly accounted for; and in fact all business pertaining to that of a cotton factor and commission merchant, will be transacted in the most satisfactory manner. We know Mr. Gay and that of which we speak.

INQUEST.—Coroner Samelson held an inquest yesterday on the body of a negro named Isaac Moore, who died in a house on the Raleigh road, on Monday morning, from gunshot wounds in the body and legs. The only evidence elicited was that Moore came to the house bleeding very profusely from severe wounds, which he said were inflicted by a man with a shotgun. He refused to give any further information than this, though repeatedly questioned. He bled to death in about an hour, and though conscious up to the last, refused to throw any light on the causes of his wounds. The jury rendered a verdict "died from gunshot wounds inflicted by a party or parties unknown to the jurors." This is a very mysterious affair, and one which we see no likelihood of clearing up.

IMPORTANT ACTION OF THE GRAND JURY.

Indictment of the "Hon." T. A. Hamilton for Perjury.

Yesterday (before the Grand Jury of the Criminal Court adjourned), Major Ed. E. Beecher went before it, and, on oath, accused the "honorable" T. A. Hamilton of perjury—in that he took the test oath, after having given aid and comfort to, and having been engaged in the "rebellion." After a full investigation of the charge, the Grand Jury returned a true bill, charging the "honorable" (God save the mark!) with the crime, which will not only move him from the high place he now disgraces, but if justice has not completely fled from our God-forsaken State, confine him to a felon's cell in the Penitentiary, a place much more congenial and fit for such as he, than the legislative halls of a great and sovereign State, even though she be over-run and governed by scalawags and thieves. This is the first instance that we know of where these Radical renegades have been checked up at all. God grant that the laws may now be vindicated! We will give our readers the full documents in the case in a day or two.

"Though the mills of God grind slowly, they grind exceeding small,
With patience he stands waiting, with exactness grinds he all.

WYTHE DEPOT, M. & O. R. R

Grand Rally, Saturday, August 15th.---Speaking, Barbecue and Bran-Dance.

Our Democratic friends at Wythe depot, on the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, are making extensive preparations for the barbecue which is to occur there on Saturday, the 15th instant, and expect to have one of the finest demonstrations witnessed this season. All the Democratic clubs—white and colored—of Memphis are invited to attend in a body. The clubs at Galloway's station, Hickory Wythe, Shelby depot and Wythe depot, are all invited to meet together that day and participate in the proceedings.

The speakers invited and expected are ex Gov. Isham G. Harris, Gen. Albert Pike, Col. Landon C. Haynes, Col. M. C. Gallaway, Gen. J. R. Chalmers, Gen. N. B. Forrest, Col. E. M. Yerger, Col. Wm. H. Stephens, Col. T. W. Avery, Col. Gantt, Col. R. F. Looney and Gen. A. W. Campbell, of Jackson. The Hon. George Pendleton, of Ohio, and J. M. Hendricks, of Indiana, are likewise invited, and it is hoped may be induced to attend.

Wardlow's famous brass band, of this city, has been engaged for the occasion, and the generous people of the country will see that fattened calves, corpulent shoats, sleek gobblers, yellow-legged chickens, juicy muttons, and succulent vegetables and fruits will grace the sweying boards in tempting profusion. There will be a feast of appetite and a flow of oratory, and when these great ends shall have been compassed, a bran dance will be set in motion, and the poetry of flying feet will be measured in endless numbers. In other words a good time will be had. An immense crowd may be expected, and much good done for the great cause of Democracy.

OUR business is to edit the Avalanche and not the APPEAL, and if they get ahead of us by superior enterprise and energy we will not make any doleful complaints to the public that somebody failed to furnish us "proofs." The APPEAL could have had the original copy of the resolutions which they published yesterday morning, by the asking last Saturday night, on condition of furnishing us the proof.

The above characteristic morceau is from the Avalanche of yesterday. That the APPEAL could have had the original copy of the resolutions by asking for them, on condition of furnishing "proof" to the Avalanche, is true. The APPEAL reporter, however, after asking for the original, relying upon the pledged word of the Avalanche reporter that "proof" should be sent to the APPEAL if he were allowed to take the MSS., consented for him to take it. This was at ten o'clock Saturday night, and at quarter past two o'clock Sunday morning no "proof" had been sent us, and consequently we were debarred from publishing the resolutions. Whose fault this is, we do not pretend to say. Among gentlemen a man's word should be as good as his bond, and we therefore relied upon the promise of the Avalanche reporter. If getting ahead of a cotemporary by such means as these shows "superior enterprise and energy" our neighbor is welcome to all the honor to be gained by such an exhibition.

THE PERFORMANCE FRIDAY EVENING. The following is the cast for the performance next Friday evening. The object is a most praiseworthy one, and we trust that all our conservative friends will rally to its support. It has been suggested that, in order to avoid all chance of carping and faul-finding, the Central Democratic Club appoint a committee to assist and co-operate with Mr. Montague in his undertaking, and who will take a portion of the responsibility off his shoulders. This will effectually remove all chance for invidious remarks;

The two gentlemen named will continue the business at the old stand, No. 286 Front street, where they will also settle all business connected with the old firm.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Another Report from the Grand Jury.

To the Hon. Wm. Hunter, Judge of the Criminal Court of Memphis:

Your Grand Jury having concluded its labors, desire, before asking a final discharge, to leave with your Honor and the public the following statement of the "financial condition of our county." It may be that we exceed the bounds of our inquisitorial powers; but being impressed with a belief that such a statement will redound to the public interest, and that whatever is of public interest demands investigation at our hands, it is therefore humbly submitted. It will be understood, however, that with the exception of Mr. League's report, we have been unable to obtain exact figures, but give it as our opinion that in the main it is correct:

|---|---|
| Report of John League shows that since the County Commissioners went into office, say for sixteen months last past, there has been issued in scrip | $692,000 00 |
| Outstanding warrants of Leonard, about | 55,000 00 |
| Making a total issue of | $747,000 00 |
| Of this amount there has been taken up in taxes, about | 397,000 00 |
| Leaving a balance outstanding of | $350,000 00 |

The taxable property of Shelby county being at least thirty millions, it will require a tax of one and one-sixth per cent. to liquidate the present indebtedness. Then, by economical, judicious management, the current expenses for the coming year can be brought inside of $200,000. To meet this, an additional three-fourths per cent. will be sufficient. Thus a tax of one and eleven-twelfths per cent. upon the taxable property will produce a revenue of $575,000, which sum will cover the present indebtedness and meet the expenses of another year. We learn that our county holds stock in the M. and O. Railroad to the amount of $300,000, which, we are informed, is worth ten cents on the dollar, making it worth to the county but $30, 00, instead of $300,000, the amount for which the county issued bonds, upon which it pays an interest of $18,000 per annum. Would it not be policy to buy up those bonds at their present value and stop the interest? It may be urged that these suggestions are gratuitous—that the empty condition of our treasury forbids their adoption; in short, we have no money. There is your courthouse and jail at Raleigh, your real estate on Adams street, all of which produces no revenue at present. Would it not be well to dispose of the above named property at a proper time, and take up the railroad stock bonds, which can be done for about twice the amount paid in interest each year? The annexed report of Mr. League will show the amount of county appropriations under various heads, showing unmistakeably that excessive charges have been paid for every item required. Would it not be well to estimate the amount of fuel, books, stationery, poorhouse supplies, etc., that may be required for the ensuing year, and give out the contract to the lowest responsible bidder? If the United States Government is able to estimate expenses for a year in advance, we certainly think Shelby county ought to be able to do so. We think in this way much can be saved.

In our former report we informed your Honor that more than $20,000 per annum were being appropriated by the county to pay for guards, etc., at the jail. We had hoped this expenditure would have been dispensed with. Yet, we are informed the Commissioners still persist in paying two assistant jailors, a book-keeper, and a number of guards.

In relation to the burial of paupers, we are assured by Col. Palmer, of the Freedmen's Bureau, that no further permission will be given undertakers to bury on what is known as the Beauregard land.

Much more might be said concerning the county finances, but we deem it unnecessary. If our suggestions are of any value, we hope they will be acted upon; if not, then will those upon whom devolves the management of affairs adopt some mode or measures by which the credit of our county will be revived and placed in such condition as its wealth entitles it to occupy?

The thanks of this Grand Jury are due to Mr. John League, for much valuable information, and the very courteous manner in which we were shown through the records in his office. Mr. League is deserving of much credit for the systematic manner in which his records are kept.

We would also commend the Trustee, Mr. J. J. Powers, for the new method adopted in that office; the registration of all warrants, the time when and to whom issued, and effectually cancelling the same as soon as they come into his possession.

Mr. Hall will accept the thanks of this Grand Jury for the very patient, prompt and efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties as bailiff; also the sheriff and his deputies. And in conclusion we desire very especially to thank your Honor for the uniform kindness and courtesy at all times extended towards us; and we trust that when the public shall constitute itself a court to sit in judgment upon your Honor's official acts it will possess the same calm, dispassionate impartiality that characterizes your Honor's adjudications.

Having acted upon all matters presented to us, we now ask that your Honor will discharge us, and shall ever pray, etc.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, August 11, 1868. }

There was much the same feeling today in regard to stocks and bonds as we reported in our last. Holders of Memphis and Charleston Railroad stocks were firm in their views, while buyers were no more anxious to buy, at least not enough so to advance their offering rates. The $40,000 in 21 mortgage Mississippi Central, alluded to yesterday, was sold, we believe, to-day at 30c. City bonds remain in statu quo—$28,000 in all were bought at 50c on Monday. To-day a few small amounts were offered at the same figures, and were doubtless taken, as parties express a willingness to buy all on the market at 50c.

Gold closed to-day in New York at 146¼c. In this market sales of small lots occurred at 143@144c to brokers, who sell at 145@146.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Gold 145¾. Five-twenties, coupons of '81, none; do '62, 14½; do '64, 10½; do '65, 12½; do new issue, 8½; do '67, 9; 10-40s, coupons, 9½; Government bonds dull.

City Scrip is steady, with only small sales reported. Buying at 70@72c. Selling at 75@80c.

County Warrants are dull at 50@51c buying. Selling at 55@58c.

Police Scrip is in fair demand. Brokers buy at 73@75c. Selling at 80c.

The new tax law is not generally understood and we therefore give a synopsis of it so far as it relates to rectifiers, distillers, and dealers in tobacco.

In making the reassessment all allowance will be made for the portion of tax already paid, appropriate to the unexpired portion of the year. The tax will be reassessed to August 1st, three-fourths of the year.

Rectifiers are required to pay $200 for not exceeding 200 barrels, and fifty cents for each barrel in excess of that number. Persons who engage in rectifying under the new act will be assessed the pro rata proportion of the $200, and the fifty cents tax per barrel will be collected on each barrel in excess of such pro rata proportion of 200 barrels.

The specific special tax on wholesale liquor dealers is not changed, but a change is made on the rate of additional tax on sales in excess of which additional tax is to be collected.

If a person commences a business as a liquor dealer, in August, he would be liable to a special tax, appropriate to the unexpired portion of the year, or three-fourths of one hundred dollars, and this would cover the sale of three-fourths of twenty-five thousand dollars, or, eighteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars, which, when exceeded, he must begin to make separate returns, and pay the additional rate required under the old law. A wholesale liquor dealer who paid the special tax at the commencement of the year should be charged for sales made prior to July 20th, at old rates, and for those made afterward, at the new. The end will be reached by exempting him from monthly tax unless his sales made after July 20th reach half the amount which he might have sold had there been no change in the law. Thus, if he had sold $30,000 before the change he may sell $10,000 afterward. If he sold $20,000 before, he may sell $5000 after the change.

Manufacturers of stills will be assessed pro rata for the unexpired portion of the year, that is, seven-ninths of $50, or $38 98. If, however, he has already paid a special tax of ten dollars as a manufacturer, he will be entitled to a deduction of seven-ninths of ten dollars, or $7 77, making the amount to be assessed $31 12.

In addition to this, he is liable to a tax of twenty dollars for each still, and twenty dollars for each worm made for distilling. If, however, he manufactures other articles besides stills or worms he is not entitled to any deductions on account of the special tax paid as a manufacturer.

Dealers in leaf tobacco, whose sales do not extend to $10,000, are to pay $25, and in addition $20 for every $1000 in excess of $10,000; if in business on July 20, will be assessed seven-ninths of $25, and when sales exceed seven-ninths of $10,000 will become subject to the additional tax of two dollars per $1000. Dealers commencing business subsequent to that time will be assessed a pro rata proportion of twenty-five dollars, counting from the first day of the month in which they commenced, and the tax of two dollars will attach when their sales shall exceed the same pro rata proportion of $10,000.

Wholesale dealers in tobacco, and manufacturers of cigars and tobacco, who sell leaf tobacco, must pay the special tax of dealers in leaf tobacco in addition to their other special taxes.

Every person whose business is to sell manufactured tobacco, snuff or cigars, is regarded as a dealer in tobacco, and where his annual sales exceed $100 and and do not exceed $1000, must pay $5, and $2 in addition for each $1000 in excess of $1000. Any retail dealer, wholesale or retail dealer or keeper of a hotel or eating house, who sells tobac

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters desirous of purchasing lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Harrington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. Mr. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Steel Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, boils, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful workwright. G. W. TRUEHEART, jy28 81aw3mdaw Agent for Daniel Pratt.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally fly everything they can learn of as purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom. OVERTON HOTEL.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Chancery Court of Memphis, entered on the 28 h day of February, 1868, for the sum of $58,766 16½, against J. M. Keating, B. B. Waddell and Coleman Boyd, we, the undersigned, Commissioners and Commissioners of the said Court, will,

On the 10th Day of October Next,

Between the hours of 10 o'clock and 4, in front of the said Hotel, proceed to sell, to the highest bidder, on a credit of six and twelve months, the said Memphis Overton Hotel and the land on which the same stands, being the following lots, on the plan of the city of Memphis, to-wit: 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, situate on the northwest corner of Main and Poplar streets in the city of Memphis, and embracing the block bounded by said Poplar and Main streets and Center alley, and an alley bounding said property on the north.

Redemption waived by the decree. The successful bidder will be required to execute notes for the purchase money with the most undoubted security before the sale is closed, and on failure, the sale will be continued, reopening on the last preceding bid.

The title is perfect, as we are advised, but we do not personally warrant the same.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our object, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these Instruments is of unrivalled beauty, combining great Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly
